

Hello All,

We are thrilled to announce that we recently hosted our first-of-its-kind inaugural Sales Networking Events under the theme "How AI and GenAI Are Transforming Sales" at two strategic locations:

Sofitel Mumbai 19th June 2025

Cisco Campus, Bangalore 3rd July 2025

These weren't just typical networking events. These were high-energy, in-person gatherings built around one powerful idea: Putting the modern seller at the center of the AI revolution.

Key Objectives

- Boost Cisco Sales Talent brand by building a space for a seamless fusion of Cisco Sales insights and sharp external industry perspectives.
- Share how AI is redefining Sales lifecycle in Cisco and how we all can co-create the future of selling together.
- Generate interest in potential talent pool through meaningful dialogues, conversations, and new possibilities around AI revolution in Cisco Sales.

Event Summary

This high impact event convened senior industry leaders and Cisco experts to exchange strategic insights on how AI and GenAI are redefining the sales landscape. Through thought provoking keynotes, fireside conversations, and focused roundtables, participants explored cutting edge innovations while forging valuable industry connection.

Voice of participants

"It was an incredibly insightful and well-structured experience that not only showcased the exciting developments in Cisco's AI offerings but also provided a fantastic opportunity to connect with senior sales professionals across the industry and HR leaders within Cisco. Your efforts in bringing together such a diverse and knowledgeable group of participants, along with the seamless logistics and engaging sessions, truly made a lasting impression."

Testimonials

"From real-world Sales applications of generative AI to thought-provoking discussions on innovative use cases of AI across various industries, the evening was packed with insights that will stay with me. I had an insightful time Meeting professionals from diverse industries, all navigating their own AI transformation journeys. Always grateful for opportunities to learn, share ideas, and expand my network with passionate people. Looking forward to collaborating and continuing these conversations."

A heartfelt thank you to the event organizers, speakers, and behind-the-scenes teams whose dedication and creativity made this inaugural series a resounding success.

Here's to many more impactful engagements driving innovation and collaboration in sales.

Thanks,
Pallabi and Team
